TOWN OF FARMINGTON

Per Ordinance No. 93

Ordinance No. 93 provides an exemption from personal property taxation for certain ambulance-type motor vehicles; the vehicles must be used exclusively for transporting a medically incapacitated individual

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL:

- EXEMPTION: Pursuant to Section 12-81c of the General Statutes of Connecticut, an exemption from Personal property taxation is provided for any Ambulance-Type Motor Vehicle, which is used exclusively for the purpose of transporting a medically incapacitated individual, except any such vehicle used to transport any such individual for payment.
- DEFINITION: Term "Ambulance-Type Motor Vehicle" shall include a vehicle equipped with special Hand controls or with other adaptations to assist physically disabled drivers or passengers.
- INTENT: It is the intent of this ordinance that physically disabled persons requiring special adaptations to a motor vehicle either to drive said vehicle or to be transported by such vehicle shall be entitled to a personal property tax exemption for said vehicle.
- PROCEDURE: An applicant for a personal property tax exemption pursuant to this ordinance shall file an application with the Assessor on or before the annual assessment date (October 1). Such exemption shall continue from year to year so long as the vehicle is being used for the above stated purpose.
