1219-02- Sylvan Ave at Lovely Street is viewed as a cut-thru, resulting in cars turning down Sylvan and over to Extension, only to find there's no way out. As a result cars are turning around at 1 Extension Street's driveway on a daily basis.

1219-03- Too much traffic from Wolf Pitt at Birdseye, making it difficult to cross the street at the crosswalk and seems to be the cause of several accidents.
