- Promotional materials that were developed and created in the previous year
- The new website created by Economic Development Commission (EDC) www.choosefarmington.com. And the various platforms (websites, social media, weekly e-newsletters, and promotional materials) that EDC uses to engage the community.
- The Streetscape Master Plan that was developed and the marketability of Parsons Property.
- The Small Business Resource Series created over the last year that she plans to continue in the coming year.
Motion was made and seconded (Mastrobattista/Capodiferro) to tentatively approve pages 14-15.

Adopted unanimously

Police

The Manager; Erica Robertson, Assistant Manager; Joseph Swetcky, Director of Finance and Administration; Kathryn Krajewski, Assistant Manager and Chief Paul Melanson reviewed the accounts on pages 31-41 of the budget and answered Council questions.

The following areas were highlighted:

- Reductions were made to the department that may have an impact on services.
- One unmarked vehicle was cut from the budget due to budget restraints that was recommended in the vehicle replacement plan. The dollar amount was $5,000 for one year of that vehicle lease (The Town Council made a note to return to this item at the next budget meeting)
- Chief recommended 4 additional patrol officers that were also cut from the budget that would have been included except for the tight budget target.
- Reorganization of the police department based upon needs assessment such as school safety and emergency management.
- Regionalized Dispatch Centers that allow for more grant funding
- Crossing Guard on Route 4 and Elm Street
- Response to the Opioid Epidemic

Motion was made and seconded (Mastrobattista/Capodiferro) to tentatively approve pages 31-41.
